Second Hilltop Hearing Slated Here January 21

The board of equalization hearing on alleged narcotics activity at the Hilltop Lodge, 22 Hillcrest drive, will be resumed January 21 at the Daly City council chambers, THE RECORD learned today.

The session will begin at 10 a.m. and may mark the final day of a hearing which finds the board seeking revocation of the hangout's liquor license.

First session of the hearing was held in Redwood City November 19 and was continued to Daly City December 8. At the Daly City hearing a state investigator testified that narcotics activity at the 'Lodge was so bold that at one time he saw nine people smoking marijuana at the bar.

According to Norbert Falvey, acting district liquor control administrator who represents the prosecution, the state has rested its case. The January 21 hearing will be devoted to testimony of Attorney John J. Fahey's defense witnesses. Sources within the board said Fahey is expected to spring some "surprise" witnesses in the case.

Ivores Dains will continue to act as referee of the hearing.

The Town Record

By MONTE DAYTON

All points bulletin: SGT. LEAN WOOD, terror of local motorists who park overlong and the man who once tagged a municipal judge for overparking, appeared in the Daly City session of the municipal court Friday with one thin greenback clutched humbly in his hand.

The transaction was payment of a ticket Wood had received for overparking.

Daly City had a representative in the Rose Bowl parade.

He was ELMER OHLENDORF, 95 San Joaquin avenue, who appeared on the Lutheran Laymen's league float, singing in the choir.

If so, MRS. JACK IRVINE, 6131 Mission street, would be mighty happy to be notified of his whereabouts.

The cat belongs to her son, WILLIAM THATER, who is a World War II disabled vet.

H. Z. WEIBEL, Jeff elementary district superintendent, and his wife shunned business last week as they entertained board members at their home on 1712 Louvaine drive in Broadmoor.

A full attendance was reported at the board "meeting."

What's the use of getting your house all decorated up and then have somebody else get the credit?

For this reason, we tender our apologies to MRS. CHARLES SCHWAB, whose home at 7 Cliffside drive featured the nice Yule decor.

A family who had moved out long ago got the original credit.

That story on adoption of city manager form of government here was promised as an exclusive to this publication, but somewhere in the city ranks a leak developed, giving the story to another county paper two days earlier.

In this business we say that's the same as betraying a confidence.

What was the row the other evening between a "top of the hill" grocery store proprietor and a lady restaurateur?

OK New Water Line For Mission Circle

City councilmen agreed Monday night to allow installation of a new two-inch water line on Mission Circle.

The project, to cost about $500, can be done while the street is being widened to a two-way thoroughfare, according to Charles "Gus" Ford, water department superintendent.

Hillside Residents Not In Daly City Will Pay For Water

If Hillside boulevard residents who are not within Daly City limits want water in the future they're going to have to pay for it.

Such was the decree of the city council Monday night.

Charles "Gus" Ford, water superintendent, told councilmen that on February 1st the San Francisco water department, now serving areas on the fringe of southern Daly City, would discontinue service.

Ford asked the council whether Daly City would have to provide these people water.

According to City Attorney Frank Blum, legally the city could refuse to supply the people with water.

Engineer Edwin Smith said the solution was to charge the residents a higher rate for their water or make them pay installation costs for main and subsidiary water lines.

Blum said he would work up a rate schedule which could be applied to the area when it begin receiving Daly City water.

Councilman Urges Special Election For Assembly Post

In calling for a special election to fill the position vacated by State Assemblyman Daniel J. Creedon of Daly City, Councilman Edward Dennis said this week that "Northern San Mateo county without Assembly representation at Sacramento certainly would do an injustice to all citizens of the fastest developing portion of this county."

Dennis pointed to the fact that Governor Knight, in a recent visit here, commended this area for the wonderful expansion of new homes and business opportunities.

"The assessed property valuation in the cities of Daly City, Colma, South San Francisco, San Bruno, Millbrae and Burlingame, comprising the 25th Assembly district, amounts to many millions of dollars which definitely must be ably represented by voice and voting in the state capitol," Dennis said.

"The residents of our North county are predominately wage earners and small business people. Therefore, if we are to go two years without a replacement for former Assemblyman Creedon, then possibly added state tax legislation would be passed without a representative from this district to protect our interests," he concluded.

Commission Will Meet

The library commission will hold its regular monthly meeting in the city hall Wednesday at 8 p.m., according to Chairman Wayne Carr.

FOUR STAND-BY SEWAGE WORKERS RESIGN POSTS

Four weekend "standby" employees of the North San Mateo County Sanitation district have resigned their posts, it was learned this week.

They were: David Cafferata, Jack Callan, William J. Byrne and Edward Byrne.

Their job was to stand-by on weekends for sewage emergencies. They each received $40 a month.

The employees gave no reason for their resignation, which became effective January 1.

The Sanitation district board of directors appointed Louis C. Dielissen, 358 Woodrow, to continue the stand-by service, along with sanitation district inspector James Poket.

Only One Drunk Driving Arrest Over New Year's

Only one arrest was made for drunk driving in Daly City on New Year's eve, local police records revealed.

The alleged violator was John Anthony McCourt, 38, of 111 Chester street, San Francisco, who was picked up at 9:50 p.m. Friday evening.

According to the arresting officer, McCourt, travelling south on Mission street, was swerving from lane to lane.

After being pulled over to the curb by the officer McCourt nearly fell when getting out of his auto and staggered severely, according to police. The officer said McCourt's speech was incoherent.

An intoxication test at Junipero Serra hospital showed postive results, police said.

McCourt was booked on the charge and later released on $250 cash bail. He is scheduled to appear Tuesday at 10 a.m.

STRONG CITY MANAGER TYPE GOVERNMENT SOUGHT HERE

BOTH WAYS — Mission Circle, long a one-way street for northbound traffic, will be widened from 24 to 34 feet in order to accommodate two-way travel. Contractor O. C. Jones & Sons is scheduled to start work in the near future on the project, which will cost $3747.60. Photo shows northern end of Mission Circle near Daly City post office.

WOULD CUT DUTIES OF FIVE COUNCILMEN

A switch to the "strong" city manager form of government here was proposed by the council Monday night in a study session.

The city manager type government, which could be set up by ordinance, would install in the manager office a man who would have complete control over administration of city business.

This would remove many lesser routine duties from the council and limit their activities to legislation and policy making, according to a statement released Monday by councilmen.

Whether present City Administrator Dan Andersen would apply for the manager job was not revealed by either the council or Andersen.

Experienced Man

However, it is believed the council will seek for the job a man experienced in the field. Andersen, receiving a salary of $7200 a year, has been administrator here for more than three years.

The council indicated they would establish a salary considerably higher than Andersen's to attract an experienced manager.

A statement in a metropolitan newspaper quoted Mayor Joseph Verducci as saying no change was contemplated when the manager form of goverenment was adopted.

Three Methods

The manager form of government can be put into action here either by council ordinance, by an election, or by an initiative sponsored by the citizens.

Councilmen hope to bring about the change by ordinance if public opinion favors the plan.

This would save $4000 necessary to conduct an election.

Secret behind the manager form of government in eliminating politics from city administration is the fact that the manager's job is reasonably secure.

To be removed from office charges of derelection of duty must be filed against him. A 30-day grace period is then given in which the manager may prepare his case for hearing. After charges are listed publicly at the hearing, a council vote is taken. Four councilmen must favor the manager's ouster in order for it to take effect. In other words, even a simple council majority of 3-2 is not enough to remove the "strong" manager.

Prepared Statement

In a prepared statement Monday councilmen said:

"With the rapid growth of our city both in territory and in population the city council has been analyzing the method of government with trends of other rapidly growing communities in an attempt to determine what type of government operation legally open to a sixth-class city is most beneficial to the taxpayers. After much thought and investigation on the subject, the city council has decided to explore the city manager type of government in all its aspects with the idea of promulgating this type of government for the citizens of Daly City."

The council said further that the city manager form of government would provide for "alleviation of much of the city council's detailed work and allow the council more time for planning, legislating and policy making."

The statement also said the manager form of government would streamline city transactions.

The manager would be able to transact business on a day-to-day basis, councilmen said, while present operation of government prevents such delegation of powers.

KIRCHHUBEL WIFE HIT BY SPOUSE, LOCAL POLICE SAY

Anne Kirchhubel, wife of local tavern proprietor George Kirchhubel, was treated at Junipero Serra hospital early New Year's day for a laceration on her chin that police say resulted from a blow inflicted by her husband.

Police responded to a New Year's party at the Eagles hall on San Jose avenue, at 12:30 a.m. after Councilman Del Wilson reported that a woman had been injured.

On arriving police found Mrs. Kirchhubel with a severe cut under her chin. She was transported to Junipero Serra hospital, where five stitches were required to close the wound.

According to police report, Kirchhubel inflicted the cut when he hit his wife.

City Bike License Proposed At Meeting

A 50 cent bike license was proposed by city councilmen Monday night.

Mayor Joseph Verducci said it was a good idea if it wouldn't be too much trouble to administrate the handling of licenses.

De Bernardi Says Put Fire Officer On Duty All Times

Councilman Micheal De Bernardi proposed Monday night that an officer should be on duty on a 24-hour basis in the fire department.

He complained that the chief and the two captains are all off duty at the same time, since they all have the day shift.

"Who's in charge when they're off duty?" he asked.

City Administrator Dan Andersen said it had been the city's policy to have at least one of the officers in town at all times.

He agreed, however, that it would be better if a lieutenant category was set up in the department.

PARKING AUTHORITY ASKS $500 FROM CITY

Ray Charette, chairman of the newly-formed Daly City parking authority, appeared before the city council Monday night to request $500 in operating funds for his group.

The chairman said that amount was needed to conduct a written survey on Daly City's parking situation.

INSTALL WALSH AS PRESIDENT DC EMPLOYEES

Other officers installed included Dave Johnstone, police inspector, vice president; Allan Hertel, chief water department clerk, secretary; and Juanita Giusti, police matron, secretary.

PUT FINISHING TOUCHES ON DC SUBDIVISION LAW

Councilmen put finishing touches on Daly City's comprehensive subdivision ordinance Monday night and tentatively set January 24 as date to introduce the legislation.

In other action involving zoning Monday night councilmen approved application from Gateway Chevrolet to build parking lot on Allemany street and application of Mesak and Holm for re-subdividing lots 40 through 49, Bella Vista Terrace.

Council Proposes Another Hearing On Trailer Court

City councilmen Monday night informally considered Smith Enterprises application to construct a 76-unit trailer court in the heart of the city and tentatively set February 7 as date for public hearing on the controversial project.

The council plans to vote on the matter at the February 14 open meeting.

Man Attempts To Pick Up 8-year Old

Mrs. Dan Ciolino, 275 Winchester street, is thankful today that her 8-year-old daughter is a Dragnet fan.

A car pulled up along side and a man asked her if she wanted a ride. Remembering the Dragnet shows and her mother's warnings about strangers, Dianne ran across the street to her home instead and told her father. The man made no attempt to follow. According to police reports, Dianne described the man as having brown hair, medium height, in his middle twenties and driving a blue 4-door sedan.

Parking Authority Traffic Plans Are Under Discussion

The Parking Authority at its regular public meeting on the fourth Thursday of this month, January 27, 1955, will have a final discussion of its plans to aid in relieving the various parking problems in the City.

These plans are the results of months of study by the members of the Parking Authority who were guided by the Daly City Chamber of Commerce's survey which was made two years ago.

The Parking Authority is being assisted in the developing of these plans by a special coordinating committee recently appointed by Mayor Joe Verducci. This committee is made up of the following members:

Edward Dennis, Councilman; Tony Ricci, Police Commission; George Pingry, Planning Commission; George Hopman, Building Inspector; Ray Charette, Parking Authority.

Mambers of the Parking Authority who have been studying these plans are Ray Charette, Chairman, Walter Rector, Harold Holman, Sadie Cardellini and Tom Stanghellini.

MONKEY BAR FALL INJURES DC GIRL

Twelve-year-old Mary Alice Olson, 165 Miriam, suffered a fractured arm Sunday afternoon when she slipped and fell from monkey bars at Marchbanks park.

The youngster was treated at Junipero Serra hospital.

Five New Year's Mishaps Injure Two

Suffering hurts when the auto in which they were riding struck a power pole on Hillside boulevard were Warren Brentlinger, 23, and his wife, Lorraine, 21, of 724 Commercial, San Francisco.

The accident occurred Saturday at 12:15 a.m. as the Brentlingers were travelling north on Hillside boulevard.

Brentlinger told police the car started to sway as he neared East Vista street, finally veering off the road and striking a power pole. Front of the car was severely damaged.

Needs 21 Stitches

Friday morning police reported a crash-up at the corner of Chester and Orange streets.

Winefred E. Laas, 39, of 540 Atlanta, was travelling east on Chester when her auto collided with one being driven south on Orange by Harold Henry Kversten, 23, 554 Brunswick street, San Francisco.

Neither driver was injured and no citations were issued.

New Year's Wreck

Two hours after the arrival of the New Year Saturday a collision was reported at the Mission street-Hillside boulevard intersection. Vehicle of Winton Hearn Pee, 46, of Honolulu, travelling north on Mission, struck an auto driven by Jean Bernard Joyaux, 41, of 428 Larch, South San Francisco, turning east onto Hillside.

No injuries nor citations were listed by police.

Sunday at 11:20 a.m. police reported a wreck at Hillside boulevard and Castle streets.

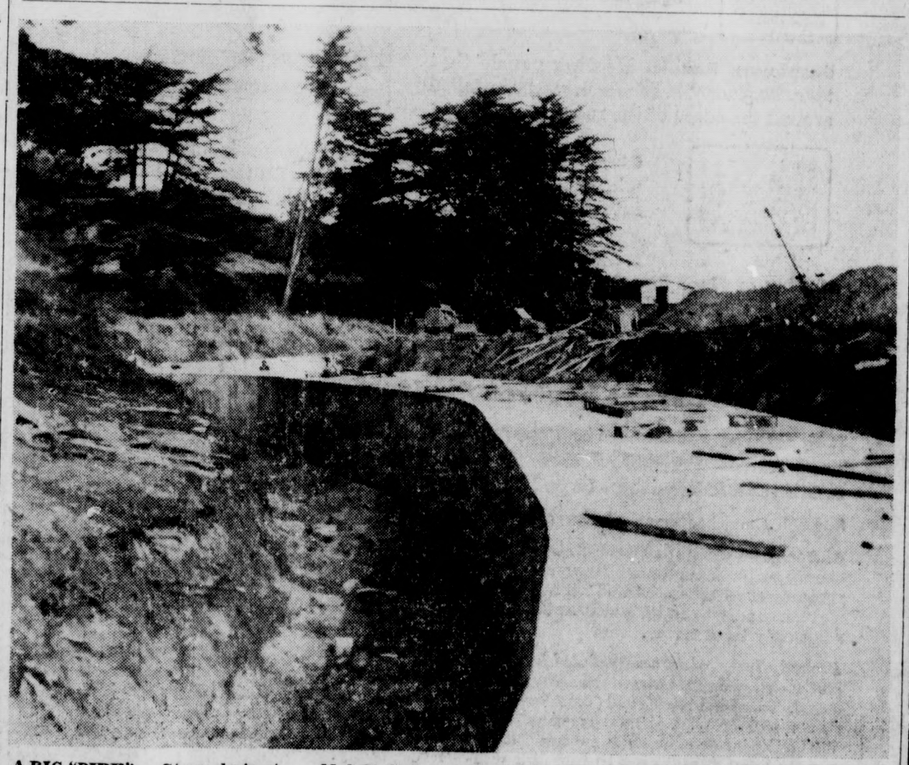
The accident occurred when Robert L. Young, 34, of 114 Valley street, travelling south on Hillside, collided with an auto driven by Samuel E. Eisman, 57, of 728 Midway, Broadmoor, going east on Castle. No injuries or citations were listed.

Cite Driver

Earlier Sunday, at 1:30 a.m., one driver was cited after hitting a parked car on School street.

Police said Emanuel Meredith Bellew, 53, of 1 Duval street, San Francisco, struck a parked auto as he was driving east on School near Werner street. He struck a car owned by Roy Nonella, 20, of 160 School street, apt. A.

Bellew was cited for driving with an expired operators' license.



A BIG "PIPE" — Storm drain at 10-acre Westlake park site off Alemany and Lake Merced boulevard nears completion. M & K Corp., contractor, is doing the job for $21,520. When completed, drain will carry off water from park site lowlands, across Lake Merced boulevard and down into ocean outfall.

Paula Winters Cuts Wrists At SF Home

Paula Winters, alias Shirley Grimes, 21-year-old former Daly City girl who touched off a grand jury vice investigation in San Francisco that led to the indictment of call house madam Mabel Malotte, was treated at Alemany emergency hospital last week after slashing her wrists because of an argument with her spouse, Joseph Lo Presti.

Paula, married just a month ago, shortly after being arrested in the Crocker hills outside of Daly City with two men, used a razor blade on her wrists after an argument with her husband at their home, 803 Guerrero street, San Francisco.

Police said Mrs. Lo Presti locked herself in the bathroom after the argument and slashed herself, "intending to scare" her husband. The wounds were not serious.

Letters To The Editor

St. Vincent de Paul Society Thanks Christmas Fund Contributors

Editor, The Record
Dear Sir:

Count Your Blessings is not only the title of a song on the Hit Parade, it is very good counsel. And today we count among our blessings the magnificent effort of organizations and individuals in Daly City to keep alive the faith of little ones in the miracle of Christmas and to let the lonely aged know that someone cared.

Our heartfelt thanks goes to: The Daly City Fire Department for the laborious job of rehabilitating, packing and distributing toys and for the sacrifices made in providing turkey baskets; the Lions club for the wonderful spirit they displayed in providing a real Christmas for twelve large families; Mike Jacobs of Kings Market for the turkey baskets so generously provided.

The charitable ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary Post 410 who never fail to remember the needy in our midst; the ladies of the Eagles Auxiliary for their splendid contribution of Christmas baskets and toys; the Rotary club for the excellent clothing provided, and to that great humanitarian, Peter Markovich, whose self-sacrificing efforts have contributed so greatly to the annual Christmas fund drive.

We pray God's choicest blessings will descend in great abundance upon these splendid groups and all the wonderful people who contributed to the Christmas fund.

Sincerely,
John E. Colthurst,
Secretary,
St. Vincent de Paul Society

Auto Renewals Are Now Underway

Mailmen are in the process of notifying 5,000,000 California motorists that it is time to renew the registration of their cars, according to Paul Mason, director of motor vehicles.

The Daly City branch office of the Department of Motor Vehicles, one of the 104 in the state, is authorized to handle all types of renewals. The local office under Garland Bear, manager, is located at 6165 Mission street.

Bear reminds automobile owners that the renewal of registration is due on or before Friday, February 4. The fastest service may be obtained by submitting fees with the prepared statement mailed to owners from Sacramento.

Persons who do not receive the mailed reminder are responsible nevertheless for registration renewal and should submit their fees with the 1954 white registration slip.

An innovation has been adopted as the 1955 statement of fees due. After two years of testing with truck and trailer registrations the white slip has been dropped, a prepunched card describing the vehicle and identifying the owner is being used.

The department asks all applicants to fill in the right side of the card, legibly printed or typed, before presenting it at an office. The cards should not be folded, stapled or otherwise mutilated as they are used for machine tabulations.

The stub, after payment of fees, is returned to the motorist for display in the vehicle, a single 1955 tab for attachment to the rear license plate is issued.

PROFESSIONAL BAND PERFORMS AT CENTER

A 30-piece professional band, directed by George Brenner, gave a two-hour concert Wednesday night at the Daly City community center, before an audience of recreation department officials and other interested officials.

The musical group is known as the Daly City municipal band.

According to Brenner, purpose of the performance was to give the people the opportunity of hearing the new group.

Brenner hopes to have the band give a regular concert series at the community center throughout the year.

He has requested that the city council allocate funds to finance the band's activities.

SWALLOWS BUFFERIN IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT

One-half hour after the New Year was rung in Saturday morning a 35-year-old Daly City woman made an attempt on her life, according to Daly City police.

Laura Junglas, 188 Frankfort, was transported to Junipero Serra hospital at 12:30 a.m. after swallowing an unknown quantity of bufferin tablets following a dispute with her husband, police report said.

The woman's stomach was pumped out at the hospital and she was said to be out of danger.

The woman's attempt at self-destruction was one of two occurring here over the New Year's weekend, according to local police.

THIEF BUSTS LOCK; GETS HEARING AID

Forcing the front door with a "grip tool," a burglar entered the Kathryn Fredenburg home Tuesday evening and escaped with a hearing aid valued at $25.

Mrs. Fredenburg, 43, of 448 Chester street, a delicatessen owner, said she arrived home early Tuesday evening to find the door unlocked. On examination, she discovered the lock had been forced. There were teeth marks on the knob of the door, police said, indicating use of a "grip tool" as means of entry.

Mrs. Fredenburg said the hearing aid was taken from a bedroom dresser.

Andersen Asks Sale Belevue Hall, Scout House On Parkview

Sale of Bellevue hall and the Girl Scout house at 101 Parkview to gain funds for needed recreation facilities was proposed to the council Monday night by City Administrator Dan Andersen. He also suggested sale of unused city land on Junipero Serra boulevard.

Councilmen said they would turn Andersen's recommendation over to the recreation commission for further study.

Postoffice To Stop Experimental Mail Delivery March 31st

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield today announced that city and village delivery of simplified address mail, established on an experimental basis fifteen months ago, will be discontinued effective midnight March 31, 1955.

The extension of simplified address mail to city and village delivery was started to reduce losses incurred in handling third-class mail and to provide an additional public service. The results are not satisfactory. The only possible solution is increased postage rates which will be sought in the next session of the Congress.

City and village delivery of simplified address mail gave mailers the privilege of omitting names and street addresses from circulars and other mail matter and using the designations: "Householder," "Patron," or "Box Holder" as addresses.

This elimination does not affect the delivery of simplified address mail on rural routes or to boxholders at post offices where no city or village delivery service is available.

The decision will not affect the delivery on city or village routes of "Occupant" mail without a name but using a proper street address.

The order as of January 4 reads as follows:

"City and village delivery of simplified address mail, which was established on an experimental basis on August 21, 1953, is discontinued, effective midnight, March 31, 1955.

"Section 123.4 of the Postal Manual is amended to read as follows, as of that date: 41. Style of address: Third-class mail intended for delivery to all patrons on a route or to all boxholders at a post office, not having city or village letter carrier service, may be addressed in one of the following styles, on each piece: a. Rural or Star Route Boxholder, b. Post Office Boxholder."

CITY-ELEMENTARY DISTRICT TO MEET

A joint meeting between the Jefferson Elementary school district board of trustees and the Daly City council will be held Wednesday night at the school district administration building on Santa Barbara avenue.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss mutual problems and possible joint use of facilities.

TWO FORFEIT BAIL IN COURT ACTION

Two persons forfeited bail for non-appearance in municipal court Tuesday.

George E. Meyers, 46 Willits street, Daly City, charged with disturbing the peace in front of his home December 24, forfeited $25, as did Francis Gerard, 1700 El Camino Real, South San Francisco, charged with being drunk at 6390 Mission street on December 29.

OBITUARIES

Arthur H. Hulbert

Funeral services for Arthur Henry Hulbert, 1171 Brunswick street were held recently at the W. C. Lasswell & company mortuary. Interment was in Cypress Lawn Memorial Park.

Hulbert, a porter for American President Lines, died in the Kaiser Foundation hospital, South San Francisco.

He was a member of International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union Local 10. Hulbert is survived by his widow, Vivian O.; sons Kenneth A. and Warren V. Hulbert, Reginald Lewis, Joseph Majourou; daughter Mrs. Eveline Gobea, and one grandchild.

Census Will Ask Work Experience Questions

Special questions to provide information on the annual work experience of the Nation's population, will be asked in the January Current Population Survey, according to Supervisor Walter A. Freeman Jr. of the U. S. Census Bureau's district office at San Francisco, Calif.

The work experience questions will provide information on how many people were regular full-time workers throughout 1954, how many were seasonal workers, and how many worked the greater part of the year but only at part-time jobs. Additional questions covering migration and major source of income will be asked of farm wage workers.

The special questions in the January Current Population Survey are in addition to the regular questions on employment and unemployment. The Current Population Survey will be conducted locally and in 229 other sections of the country during the week of January 10. Current Population Survey interviews are made locally by Virginia E. Morrall of Menlo Park, Calif.

CHILD FALLS DOWN; FRACTURES WRIST

Four and a half year old Margaret Dwyer, 73 Dorchester street, arrived home from Kaiser Foundation hospital yesterday (Thursday) with a brand new cast on her left wrist, according to her mother. Margaret fell down stairs Wednesday and suffered a fractured wrist. She received emergency treatment at Junipero Serra hospital, a spokesman reported.

STUDENT BEATEN, LEFT IN FRONT OF HOUSE

Robert Lee Queen, 19, 258 Edgemar street, was found unconscious by neighbors Saturday morning after he had been beaten and dumped by persons unknown. Police were called in but had no clues as to the cause of the injuries or possible assailants, as stated in the report.

According to his mother, the Jefferson High senior suffered a head injury, black eye, skinned elbows and bruised face. Queen was treated at the Junipero Serra hospital and released last Monday.

Smoke From Sofa Fire Overcomes Seaman

Beecher Barg, 268 Los Olivos street, overcome by smoke, was found unconscious in the bedroom of his apartment by firemen on New Years Day, according to a local paper.

Barg, an unemployed seaman, was revived with a resuscitator and taken to Junipero Serra hospital. He was released the same day.

The fire was attributed to a cigarette, which had evidently been smouldering in a sofa for hours.

Chairwomen Picked For Mother's Polio March

Mrs. Everett Hale and Mrs. Fred C. Groh, presidents of Sheridan PTA and Farragut PTA, have been appointed area chairmen for the "Mother's March on Polio" in their districts.

PTA members of the various schools throughout the city, as well as members of the different women's and mothers' clubs, will march on the night of Tuesday, February 1st.

They will ring doorbells and collect money from homes where porch lights are burning, signifying that the occupants wish to contribute money to this very important cause, which occurs annually.

Daly City PG&E Mgr. Says Plans Forthcoming

At a general sales department meeting, held at the Fairmont hotel Wednesday, officials of the Pacific Gas & Electric company outlined plans for this year. Details concerning building and progress in the Daly City area are expected to be announced next week, Joseph A. Rohl, local manager, said yesterday (Thursday).

HYDRANT "DOWNED" BY TRUCK DRIVER

A Daly City fire hydrant was the "victim" Monday morning when a driver backed onto the sidewalk at the southwest corner of 87th street and Junipero Serra boulevard near Broadmoor.

Clarence Schriner, 41, of Oakland, said he couldn't see the hydrant and backed right over it while making a delivery in his truck.

The hydrant spilled water over the area until it was plugged by city workers.

Trend Continues; Child Eats Too Many Aspirin

Three-year-old David Stockdale, 414 San Diego avenue, chose an unusual way to celebrate New Year's Eve.

He was the third child within two weeks taken to Junipero Serra hospital for a stomach pumping operation because of an overdose of aspirin. David was released the same day, according to hospital records. His parents reported that David ate an unknown amount of aspirin.

Almost one-quarter of the arable land in Colombia is used for grazing.

Series 6 Classes For Expectant Mothers Slated

A series of six classes for expectant mothers will start at Alemany Heath Center, 45 Onondaga avenue, on January 12, at 2 p.m. These classes are offered by the San Francisco department of health as a community service for parents-to-be and their friends and interested persons.

The classes include informal discussions, practical demonstrations and movies on such subjects as: mother care, labor and delivery, and baby care.

A Public Health Nurse will conduct the meetings and, at the completion of the six classes, a diploma is given each graduate.

Persons interested may telephone DE. 3-3466 for further information regarding these classes and other facilities offered by the Alemany Health Center, neighborhood branch of the San Francisco department of health.

ELECTRIC HEAT
...how it can solve any cold room problem

Now, any hard-to-heat room in your home can have new comfort—thanks to today's modern electric heating. You get exactly the degree of warmth you want, quickly and efficiently. And electric heating is inexpensive to install. If you have a room that has never been quite warm enough—or if you've added on a room that isn't connected to your central heating system—here's the way to enjoy all the warmth you want.

Unit Heaters. A wide variety of sizes and designs. They can be built into the wall or floor—also available in portable, plug-in models. Some built-in and portable models also are equipped with fans.

Baseboard Panels. Heating panels that take the place of baseboards can be installed around the edges of the room.

Glass Panel Heating. The heating element is fused into a large thick panel of tempered glass. Units can be built into the wall or ceiling. Also available in portable models.

Ceiling or Floor Panels. Electric cables are imbedded invisibly in the ceiling or floor. Or panels of conductive rubber or other materials are attached to ceilings.

1. Be sure that your electric heating system is planned and installed by an experienced, qualified electrical contractor or dealer.
2. The room or house must be well insulated, especially in the ceilings.
3. Each room heater should have an individual thermostat so that no heat is wasted.
4. Adequate wiring is essential. Only small heaters in very small rooms can operate efficiently by plugging them into regular (120 volt) outlets. Thus 240-volt wiring is strongly recommended for individual room heaters. If your home needs heavier wiring, the low installation cost can be added to the cost of the heating equipment, and financed on the same easy bank terms.

Properly installed in an insulated home, the cost of electric heat is reasonable. Any experienced, qualified electrical contractor or dealer will be glad to survey your home. Without cost or obligation, he can tell you exactly what it will cost to install a well-engineered electrical heating system.

Take full advantage of California's low-cost electricity. See your dealer, contractor or P. G. and E., about electric heat for your home, today!

MAKING A GOOD CITY BETTER

The city council has announced intention to seek the "strong" manager form of government here.

This, in essence, means handling of all administrative duties by one central figure—a city manager—and taking these duties out of hte hands of the council.

In a city that now boasts a population of nearly 25,000 people, it is picayunish for the council to have to bother itself with myriad chores that should require no "political" decision.

With a strong manager form of government, the council can devote all its time to legislating and policy making.

This brings us to the point of selecting the strong manager when the time arrives.

We believe for this new type government to operate as it should, the manager must be a man of renown in his profession, not indebted politically, and must be paid a salary commensurate with his ability.

To keep this man unsullied politically, we feel the council, in its ordinance outlining the manager type government, should make it very difficult for this man to be removed from his job. If the new manager has no fear of political reprisal from the council, he can act with honest judgment based on his background in the profession.

Thus will the simple administration of city government be removed from the whim of the body politic, giving the council more time to deal directly with the matter of planning, legislating and policy making which can make a good city better.

My Mad World

By Leonore Brewer

At least two writers have said that life is brief, art is long. Opera was unknown when these words were written, but they are equally true in respect to this art even if, like the writer, you are born to be a listener not a performer. Two lives wouldn't be long enough to hear all the operas, particularly when so much time is devoured by yearly repetitions of "Aida" and "Traviata," irreverently referred to as warhorses, undoubtedly because of their ability to pull a season through to financial success.

That is why Nino Comel's San Francisco Operatic Quartet which is to make its debut January 12 at the Marines' Memorial Theater is so welcome, as it is his intention to present young singers in solos and group numbers from seldom performed operas. The program will include works by older masters such as Pergolesi, Cimarosa and Verdi, with the moderns represented by Benjamin Britten and Ernest Bloch.

Firmly Established

The Quartet is composed of Nancy Cronburg, soprano; Margot Blum, contralto; Gregory Millar, tenor and Ronald Dutro, baritone. Although they are young artists their professional careers are firmly established and all are familiar to concert and opera audiences throughout the Bay Area.

They are to be assisted by Elle Smernes, soprano and Robert Lewis, basso, to enable the ensemble to perform a sextette or two, one of which incredible as it may sound is from an opera entitled, "The Stolen Bucket."

This particular sextette was presented at a recent preview of this new vocal group and Frank de Bellis (KEAR, Music of the Italian Masters, Sunday evenings) was in the audience. Maestro Comel ventured to guess that even he would be unable to identify the composer without a little research. Needless to say when it comes to operas as obscure as this, we are completely out of our depth, but it is just such small signposts in the vast realm of unfamiliar territory that makes the world of opera endlessly fascinating.

Not All Suitable

Delightful as such discoveries may be to us, we are well aware that not all of these little known operas are suitable for a full scale production. Many would be engulfed by the Opera House stage, and that is why there is a real need for a concert group of this type. It could become the nucleus of a small opera company devoted to performing complete operas which are just as melodious as their better known brethren but which are never given the chance to be heard. Too, just as ballet companies perform excerpts from much longer works, so could such an opera company present single scenes or acts from operas which, although more familiar than "The Stolen Bucket," are nonetheless performed but seldom.

The Quartet is at the moment only a small group, but it has the artistic integrity and enthusiasm which could enable it to grow if we by our encouragement and support, give it the chance.

Safety News

Lets Face The Facts

With winter weather complicating the entire traffic picture, the ordinary hazards of the road take on a more dangerous aspect. Add a wet or slippery road to any of the usual hazards and you have double trouble. For this reason the following dangers should receive their share of emphasis in January:

ALCOHOL — In 24 out of 100 fatal accidents in 1953, a driver or a pedestrian had been drinking.

VEHICLE CONDITION—About six per cent of the vehicles involved in fatal accidents in 1953 had one or more unsafe conditions. About one-third of the unsafe conditions reported were unsafe brakes, one-third were blowouts and other tire defects, and one-sixth were improperly adjusted or burned out lights.

DARKNESS — Night doubles traffic troubles, and in January more than half the day is dark. On a mileage basis, traffic accident fatalities occur at night 2 to 3 times as frequently as in daylight.

PEDESTRIANS — 8,600 pedestrians were killed in traffic accidents in 1953. Inclement weather and more hours of darkness make it more difficult for pedestrians to see and be seen. Motorists should double their vigilance when visibility is poor or road sufaces are wet or slippery.

SPEED — Nearly three out of 10 drivers in fatal accidents were violating a speed law. Violations were reported for 29 per cent of the drivers (15 per cent were exceeding stated speed limits and 14 per cent were exceeding safe speeds although traveling at less than the stated speed limits or on roads where no stated limits existed.) A speed of 20 miles per hour can be too fast under some conditions. The important thing for drivers during winter months is to always drive at a speed that is safe for conditions.

STAY ALERT — STAY ALIVE IN WINTER WEATHER.

Latin Learns Hard Way About Laws Of Driving In U.S.

Ed Gutierrez, 18-year-old native of San Pablo, Central America and more recently of Pedro Valley, Calif., will probably respect this state's driving laws by the time he has finished meeting terms of a sentence imposed upon him in municipal court last week.

Gutierrez pled guilty to counts of wreckless driving, speeding and crossing from one lane to another on Alemany boulevard in Westlake December 24.

For his violations, Judge Thomas L. Bocci sentenced the latin to 20 days in the county jail, suspended on condition he pay a fine of $50 and write 10,000 times, "I will obey all traffic laws."

Bocci ordered that the youth turn in 2000 lines each week of his written promise.

A hermit crab grows larger each time it moults and must seek a new and larger shell to accommodate it.

Double sessions for 313 Westlake youngsters will end Monday morning with the opening of the $218,050 Olympia school on Northgate.

Classes from kindergarten through fourth grade, now meeting at the Westlake elementary school on half-day schedule, will be routed to the new building.

Moving was scheduled to be held today (Friday), according to H. Z. Weibel, Jefferson Elementary district superintendent. Buses will transport the children to Westlake school as usual Friday. From there the children will pick up their school belongings, and will then be taken to Olympia.

Children attending Olympia will be on the regular all-day session, Weibel said.

Regular classroom activity will begin Monday.

Olympia students will not be transported by bus, Weibel said, since all live within ¾ miles of the school.

Strong Arm Thugs Get $50 From Beach Parkers

Strong-arm robbers, carrying out their crime orders with "jive talk" similar to that used by narcotics users, knocked a 23-year-old mining engineer unconscious and took $50 from his wallet Sunday evening at 6 p.m. while the victim was parked at an isolated spot on Thornton beach west of here.

Austin B. Finger, 2751 Union street, San Francisco, was parked in the beach area with his girl friend when a car approached his auto from behind with the lights out.

Finger told police that four youths, described as about 18 or 19 years of age, emerged from a '39 model car, and approached Finger's vehicle.

Three of the hoodlums approached the driver's side of the car, while the fourth went to the right side of the vehicle, Finger related.

They then proceeded to kick the glass out of both side windows, reached in and unlocked the door.

Finger was dragged out of the car. The thugs then demanded to see his wallet. After he gave it to them, one of the robbers struck Finger on the nose, knocking him unconscious. The men then took $50 out of the wallet, gave it back to Finger with $1 remaining.

Finger reported the incident to local police after being treated at Park Emergency hospital in San Francisco for a broken nose.

The victim described his attackers language as "Jive talk" similar to that used by narcotics addicts.

Suspensions Levied On Four Motorists

Four local drivers received suspensions of licenses in recent disciplinary action by the state department of motor vehicles.

Suspensions went to: Angelo Gus Squeri, 72 Lakemont drive; John Murray White, 130 Crestwood drive, apt. 5; Alan Robert Drago, 619 F street, Colma; and Guido Moore Marchetti, 438 Miriam street.

BROADMOOR MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO RAPE CHARGE

The 22-year-old Broadmoor man who had maintained his innocence in the statutory rape of a 13-year-old school girl, switched his plea to guilty Tuesday in municipal court and was bound over to Superior Court in Redwood City for sentencing.

Later the man, William Oliver Goucher, 847 Thornhill drive, was released on $1000 cash bail. Time for sentencing has not yet been set.

Pranksters Scratch Vehicle With Nail

Frank Browning, 121 Park Plaza, apt. 19, had $40 damage done to his late model car last weekend as it was parked in front of his residence.

The victim reported that sometime between 6 p.m. Friday and 4 p.m. Saturday someone used a nail to gouge out a deep scratch the entire length of the right side of the auto.

Alleged Drunken Driver Denies Count; Asks Trial

A San Francisco man arrested by Broadmoor police December 14 on charges of drunken driving pleaded not guilty to the count Thursday in municipal court and demanded a jury trial.

Vernon McCabe, 40, was picked up on El Camino Real by Sgt. Don Tannehill December 14 after the officer said he observed McCabe driving in an erratic manner. Seymour Harvey, a passenger with McCabe, was also picked up at that time and charged with being drunk in an auto.

McCabe was represented in court Thursday by local attorney Frank Blum. Jury trial has been set for February 15.

Young Broadmoor Cyclist Crash Victim Condition Held OK

Gregory MacCarthy, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. MacCarthy, 1827 Sweetwood drive, Broadmoor, was reported "doing well" today after being struck by an auto here December 28.

Mrs. MacCarthy said the boy was brought home from St. Luke's hospital Saturday, and indicated that his severe skull cut requiring 28 stitches was healing well.

The boy suffered the serious head injury when he apparently lost control of the bicycle he was riding east on Sweetwood, ramming into the side of a car coming south on Washington street.

Impact of the collision threw the boy an estimated 18 feet through the air.

The head cut required 28 stitches, applied by attendants at Junipero Serra hospital.

Lawrence Vannucci, 64-year-old driver of the auto involved, who lives at 607 MacArthur drive, Broadmoor, was not held.

Last week's mishap on Washington, the third in that vicinity over a two-week period, promoted Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage to caution parents about their children riding bikes in residential areas. The chief warned parents to instruct their children in the rules of bike safety in order to avoid such incidents in the future.

Broadmoor Burn Victim Needs Blood For Coming Operation

Mrs. Kathleen Sifford, hospitalized for a long period of time because of severe burns, is again in need of blood for transfusions for an operation scheduled sometime within the next ten days or so. Mrs. Sifford, mother of three children and resident of Broadmoor, has no reserve left in her account at the Peninsula Blood Bank, and will require 15 pints in order to have her operation.

Those wishing to donate may phone OX. 7-4034 to make appointments at the Peninsula Blood Bank in Millbrae. The Bank will be open from 3 to 7 p.m. on Mondays and Thursdays, and from 9 to 12 a.m. on Wednesdays and Saturdays. Donors are asked to eat nothing for four hours before giving blood.

TRANSPORTATION WORKERS

One out of every seven workers in the United States is employed in highway transportation industries, according to the National Automobile Club.

Not until December, 1866, were San Francisco firemen paid for their services.

Broadmoor Police Arrest Party Goers

Auto-accident-wise, Westlake and Broadmoor areas had a clean slate over the New Year's weekend but Broadmoor police had their share of roistering partiers who had to be locked up.

Just before midnight on New Year's eve Broadmoor officers arrested two juveniles, one from Daly City, 17, and one from Broadmoor, 16, after they had attempted to start a fight at a private party on Hillside boulevard.

They were charged with being drunk and disturbing the peace and were turned over to authorities at Hillcrest Juvenile home.

At 4:15 a.m. New Year's morning police arrested a 23-year-old San Francisco woman who was found bare-footed in the front lawn of a residence at 803 Stoneyford drive. The woman, Norma Tracconi, told police she didn't know how she got there. Described by officers as very intoxicated, she was booked on a drunk charge and later released on $50 bail. She is scheduled to appear on the charge January 11 in municipal court.

At 10:30 New Year's eve residents in the Thornhill area reported hearing three gunshots. Mrs. Jennings Warren, 876 Thornhill, originally called police attention to the shots.

Further check showed several other families had heard the shots fired, but police couldn't locate the source.

The Broadmoor ambulance rolled on an emergency call shortly after the entry of the New Year when a guest at the Daly City-Colma Lions club party at the Broadmoor community center fell on the dance floor and bruised his hip at 12:30 a.m.

PEDESTRIAN HIT ON SOUTH MAYFAIR

A 26-year-old Westlake pedestrian suffered minor injuries Friday evening when he was struck by a car near the South Mayfair-Fairway intersection.

Peter Perran, 32 Fairlawn avenue, was treated at Junipero Serra hospital for cuts about the hands after he was struck by an auto driven by Dexter A. Everett, 45, of 374 Prague avenue, San Francisco, who was travelling south on Fairway.

Everett was cited by Daly City police for failure to yield the pedestrian right of way.

YOUR NEIGHBORS AND MINE

By Betty Brush

Hello Neighbors:

Greetings and a Happy New Year from all the folks in this the first column of the new year. The houses are getting back to normal with front rooms all nice and cleaned up, but the trees were really beautiful while they lasted, weren't they? The bikes, skates and skooters are silent during the day and all the children are back to school. The quiet is almost too much, but oh . . . how we do enjoy it. As usual the folks have been on the go, so here's how some of them closed out the year.

The biggest switch in plans that I heard of was done by our friend and good neighbor, MRS. LYNN BOSKEY of the Daly City Beauty Shop. Having got all her gals beautiful for New Year's Eve celebration, she goes home to get ready to go out herself. What happens? Well, folks, her appendix decided she should stay home instead. She called as many of us as she had time to and then adjourned to St. Luke's hospital where she parted with said miserable object. She would like all her folks to know that it will be three weeks before she will be able to greet them. In the meantime, we'll all have to just struggle along, and our wish is—"Get well soon, Lynn, we can't do without you."

Having a birthday which was spent on New Year's Eve was one of the nicest of the folks, MRS. MAY BAKER, who has now seen seventy-three of them come and go, was the honored guest at a dinner given in her honor by MRS. MADELINE FELLOWS and MAMA LOMBARD of Los Banos avenue. Happy birthday, MAY, from all the folks, and the happiest of New Year's to a grand lady from all of us.

Items of Interest

Leaving us to start the New Year and finish the old one in style, were MR. and MRS. ART ALVISO of San Diego avenue. They went to Felton in the coldest week of the year to stay at their summer cabin. Bet they had just as much fun as if it were summer, for fun is where you find it, and where Maud and Art are there's always fun to be found.

Seeing the old year out and the new one in with family and friends was MISS ELLEN GARGAN of Goethe street. Brother JOSEPH, who was not feeling his best, decided to stay home and take it easy. He is now feeling better and wishes he had gone and joined in all the fun with the rest of the gang on Hillcrest drive.

Spending a very quiet evening at home to welcome the New Year were MR. and MRS. ED EMERSON. Ed, as we all know, hasn't been too well of late, and he figured home was the best place for him, as it was for a lot of us.

Another birthday celebrated this week, and this one started the year off, was had by GERALD JASTRUMSKI of Los Olivos avenue. Jerry has now reached the advanced age of fifteen and is quite happy about the whole thing. A happy birthday and a most happy New Year is wished one of the nicest youngsters I know.

Having house guests over the holidays were MR. and MRS. SHAKELFORD of Bellevue avenue. Mrs. Shakelford's mother, MRS. ELIZABETH PARK, was visiting them from Australia and enjoyed every minute of it. She has now returned home with many memories of happy days spent among the kindly folks of our town who helped to make her visit so enjoyable.

Get out the mop! Get out the crying towel! The folks of Abbott street have had it again. Another of the FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS are moving. The WILLIAM GRAVATTS are leaving us on February 1st for a new home in Belmont, but are very sure they'll never have such nice neighbors and so much fun as they did when they lived on Abbott street.

As is usual with firemen, they can't even have a quiet New Years Eve. Seems like there just had to be a fire on Los Olivos and many of the folks were surprised when opened Sunday's paper to see a picture of their Chief, ELMER KENNEDY, and Fireman CHARLES BRUSH who had administered first aid to the occupant of the house who had been overcome by smoke. It's really nice to know that even on a New Years Eve, our fire laddies are always on the alert for the benefit of the rest of us. Then on New Year's Day, the people in the house down the street from me had quite a scare when their stove decided to blow up. All in all, the fire department spent a busy, if not hilarious, New Years.

Servicemen

A letter has been received thanking one and all of the folks who took the time to send a card or gift to a boy in the service. Where this card came from they really appreciate any extra mail or just plain ANY mail, period. I, myself, would like to thank all of my boys who either wrote letters or cards to me from just every spot you can mention. They just never forget. Thanks, fellows! I really appreciated them.

Heard from Japan this week, too. A 3/c EDWARD F. HARPER is really seeing things differently these days. First of all being in the Medics, he is now going to school besides his regular duty training for combat medic. Naturally his training comes in the coldest part of the year in Nagoya, and he says his clothes that he wears plus equipment, weigh more than he does. He is sending me pictures by the next mail and all I have to do is find him.

Petty Officer 3/c RICHARD E. NEGHERSON of the U.S.S. Hopewell is counting the days. In just about a month, if Uncle Sam doesn't change his mind and extend his enlistment for the good of the service, he will get that all-important piece of paper making him a civilian again. We are all hoping with you, Richie, and good luck whatever happens.

Had a visit from an ex-G.I. friend of mine, former CPL. ROBERT STONE last week. He was remembering when he spent Christmas in Korea and saw Cardinal Spellman. This year was much better according to Bob, and although he was glad to see the Cardinal, he was glad to spend this Christmas at home with his family and friends.

News and Views

When awards are passed out, Our Town takes a back seat for no one. In the contest for the best decorated fire house on the peninsula, who do you think won? Why Co. 5, of course. They won $100 plus a perpetual trophy for the Peninsula contest. They also won first prize for Daly City proper with Co. 2 getting second place. Co. 5 had quite a theme with Santa Claus playing a big pipe organ and a choir loft filled with choir boys who sang the traditional hymns. I don't know all of the fellows' names, but to one and all, congratulations from all the folks for the honors you brought to our town

The liveliest Christmas party of all that I heard of was of course held by the FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS of Abbott street. The big event was held on December 22nd at the home of MRS. ELIZABETH KIRBY. All food, which consisted of a complete ham dinner plus all the trimmings, was cooked by all the gals of the club. Presents were exchanged by all and one of the merriest of Christmases was had by one of the nicest groups of neighbors of our town. May they always continue on as the years go by. This year makes the sixth Christmas they've had together and they're looking forward to many more.

Visiting friends in our town over the New Year holiday and having a gay time, was MISS PATRICIA RAY of Santa Cruz. She and her friend of long standing, MRS. ALLEEN BRUSH, saw the New Year in while having a small snack at a Chinese restaurant.

Leaving us this week for their new home in Visitacion Valley are MR. and MRS. BROOKS of Los Banos avenue. They and their youngsters will be very much missed by grownups as well as the children. We all wish them much happiness in their new home.

Well, folks, this does it for this week. Most of us have plans for the New Year and much is being looked forward to by all. There is so much ahead of interest for all, we should all remember the phone is still PL. 5-6482, and keep ringing. I may be slow, but I'll get there. Until next week then—'Bye Now.

Westlake Woman In Life Attempt; Swallows 94 Pills

A 33-year-old Westlake typist, despondent after a recent miscarriage, swallowed 94 phenobarbital tablets Sunday evening in an apparent suicide attempt, local police said.

Barbara Jean Childers, 30 Cliffside drive, was rushed to Junipero Serra hospital at 7:25 p.m. after swallowing the pills and was later released after having her stomach pumped out.

The girl's step-father, Clarence P. Loeb, said his step-daughter had been despondent over a miscarriage she suffered while the Loebs were gone a week from December 26 to January 2.

According to police, the girl had said, "I want to quit living." She had been drinking prior to the suicide attempt, investigating officer Robert Crooker said.

Local police were called to the Cliffside residence on Thursday of last week, after Mrs. Childers asked that an unwanted male visitor be removed from the home.

Mrs. Mitchell invites calls from readers who have information for her column. Her number is PL. 5-0679.

Daly City's Share Vehicle License Fee Hits $8,371.81

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—Robert C. Kirkwood, State Controller, this week announced the apportionment of $5,804,436 of Motor Vehicle License Fee ("In Lieu" Tax) revenue among cities and counties for the period June 1 through November 30, 1954.

Of the $2,902,218 distributed to California cities, Daly City received $8,371.81, which is based on approximately $0.35 per capita.

A like amount went to the counties of California, with San Mateo county receiving $64,606.03, based on $0.27 per capita.

Colma, with a population of 297 persons, received $103.81 of the in lieu tax.

The $5,804,436 represents Motor Vehicle License Fee revenue deposited in the State Treasury after deducting $368,500 for semi-annual interest on three issues of State Highway Bonds, and $1,299,145 for one-half of the annual appropriation for the License Feed Division of the Department of Motor Vehicles.

The "In Lieu" tax is levied at the rate of $2 per hundred dollars of market value of each vehicle. It is an outgrowth of the personal property tax originally levied on motor vehicles by the counties and cities and subsequently levied by the State to achieve uniformity.

The current apportionment represents a decrease of $2,819,045 under the December 1953 distribution. The decrease in revenue is primarily technical due to the speed-up in clearance into the State Treasury during the base period of the December 1953 apportionment.

Long distance telephone service between New York and London was commenced January 7, 1927.

PG&E, Doelger Trucks Collide At Southgate-87th

A PG&E truck was rolled over two times here Tuesday afternoon when it collided with a truck driven by Arthur Dale Williams, 38, of 299 Bel Mar avenue, a Henry Doelger employee.

Police said the PG&E vehicle, driven west on 87th street by William J. Tolliday, 53, of San Francisco, was struck by Williams' truck at the Southgate intersection. Williams was travelling south on Southgate police said, and failed to yield the right of way, for which he was cited by officers.

Neither driver was injured, police said, but the PG&E truck was badly damaged after turning over two times.

New Year's Mishap At Alemany-Serra

Junipero Serra-Alemany intersection claimed a New Year's day accident, but no injuries were reported.

The accident occurred when a vehicle driven east on Alemany by William A. Brush, 19, 704 Niantic avenue, collided with one driven by Joseph Gattuccio, 49, of San Jose, who was making a left turn on to Junipero Serra.

Neither driver was cited.

POPULATION OF WESTLAKE HITS 11,623 IN '54

Westlake's population at the end of 1954 stood at 11,623, reflecting a tremendous growth in the big residential community during the preceeding twelve months.

In a statement issued at the year's end Henry Doelger summed up the growth as representing an additional 1000 families moving to Westlake during 1954.

"We plan on having an even better year during 1955," the builder said. "Our production is geared for 1500 homes during the coming year, which will complete the Westlake Highlands area and also our newest development, Westlake Palisades, adjacent to the Highlands, overlooking the sea."

In his statement on plans for the coming year, Doelger elaborated on other construction which is being planned for Westlake. Among the plans are the construction of at least 150 apartments, work on which is scheduled to commence during the latter part of the current month. The firm which Doelger heads has also ordered the steel for construction of the new Westlake Shopping Court which will ultimately double the size of the Shopping Center, and which will bring to Westlake such firms as J. C. Penney Company, F. W. Woolworth, Thom McAn, a new men's haberdashery, an important Junior Department Store,

B'MOOR WATER RATE HIKE

Petition For Increase Before Utilities Group

California Water Service has placed on file with the state public utilities commission a petition asking a water rate increase of about 15 per cent in the Broadmoor area.

Hearing on the rate increase request has been set for May 9 at the state capitol in Sacramento.

Actually, the California Water Service request calls for a "revision of the rate schedule," rather than a blanket rate increase.

The company has asked for a hike in general meter service charges amounting to nearly double the present rate. Offsetting this, however, is the proposed water quantity rate of 26½ cents per 100 cubic feet. Up to now the company has charged 39 cents per 100 cubic feet for the first 600 cubic feet used each month. All water over 600 cubic feet used each month has been billed at 24.2 cents per 100 cubic feet.

The blanket rate of 26½ cents per 100 cubic feet will amount to a decrease in cost to the homeowner who uses only a small quantity of water each month.

Meter service charge, under the company's proposal, would be raised from 70 cents to $1.90 per month for the ⅝ inch meter, type used in most households.

The ¾ inch meter service charge would be upped from $1.05 to $2.10, and the one inch meter charge would be increased from $1.40 to $2.70. Service charges on other size meters, on up to the 10 inch type, would increase comparatively.

In their application for rate increase, the company uses their 1953 revenue statement to show how much difference the proposed increase would mean to them annually.

In 1953 total meter revenue amounted to $75,903. Under the proposed rate increase they would have earned $86,975 that same year, an increase of $11,072 or 14.6 per cent.

RAIN FORCES HALT OF TRAFFIC CHECK

Rain forced a halt to a traffic check held Thursday night by the Daly City police department on the 6800 block of Mission street.

Up to the time weather conditions ended the safety check, 203 cars were stopped and 19 notices for mechanical defects were issued.

Officers Les Bastedo and Gerald Schaeffer, aided by nine auxiliary policemen, conducted the roadblock.

JEFF HI STUDENTS MAINTAIN TOP LEVEL SCHOLARSHIP AT CAL

That the recent graduates of Jefferson High school are maintaining the high level of scholarship established by former students at the University of California was learned recently by Stanford Hannah, district superintendent, through a letter received from the office of the relations with schools of the university.

An award of merit, issued only to the schools in the upper ten per cent of each division, was earned for Jefferson by the students entering Cal during the school year 1953-54.

Particularly outstanding was the work of James Boudreau, who received all "A's."

Council OKs Use Of Pinehaven Home For Temple Group

Daly City council Monday night approved the Westlake Temple Group proposal to use a residence at 60 Pinehaven for temporary Sunday school headquarters.

The building will be used for 2½ hours each Sunday.

Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy said use of the building as a Sunday school would meet with his approval if fire extinguishers were installed.

MODERN WORKS COMPOSE SFS LYRIC PROGRAM

Modern works from song, ballet, and opera will compose San Francisco State college's program of Lyric Theatre opening January 13 at 8:30 p.m. in the campus' Main Auditorium at Nineteenth and Holloway avenues. The production will be presented on three consecutive nights through January 15.

Featured attractions will be Leonard Bernstien's one-act operatic satire, "Trouble In Tahiti." Pauline Law will create the role of Dinah, Charles Buffum, that of Sam; and George Parra, Marianne Peterson and John Mathis as The Trio—or as Bernstien mentions them—"the Greek chorus born of the radio commercial."

Included in the program will be "Odd Fellow's Hall," an original ballet by Carlos Carvajal, State college dance student. Carvajal is also a member of the San Francisco Ballet.

Completing the evening will be a presentation of the "American Song Cycle" arranged by Jon Sutton and orchestrated by Dennis Burke, both Lyric Theatre workshop students.

The college's Lyric Theatre workshop is an annual attempt for students of music, dance, and drama, to experience and produce experimental works. The Bernstien score is one of the first professional scores to be considered by the company. The workshop is under the direction of Jacqueline Ogg, drama faculty member and bay area choreographer.

Admission will be 90 cents, adults; 60 cents, students.

Social Security Law Change For '55 Told

"If you are one of the persons receiving monthly old-age and survivors insurance payments, you need to know about the change in the law effective January 1, 1955, regarding the amount you can earn and still get social security payments," declares Mrs. Mercia Leton Kahn, manager of the Mission street district office of the Social Security administration.

Mrs. Kahn points out that beginning January 1, 1955, you can earn as much as $1200 in a year and still accept your benefit check for each month of the year. If you earn more than $1200 in a year, from any type of work whether or not covered by social security, benefits for some months of that year are not payable. After you are 72 years of age, you may accept the benefit check for each month regardless of the amount of your earnings.

If you expect to earn more than $1200 in 1955, or in the taxable year beginning in 1955, you should notify the Social Security Administration. Your benefits will be stopped while you are working and payments started again when you have stopped working.

If you are not sure whether you should make a report, or if you need more information, get in touch with your social security district office located at 2747 Mission street, San Francisco 10, Calif. Phone MI. 7-9722.

AMONG THE NEW establishments coming to Westlake Shopping Court will be a Jay Vee Store, 21st of a chain to be opened in California, according to announcement made today by Henry Doelger, developer of the local shopping center. Hopkins, Vice President and General Manager Frank Robichaud and Secretary and Merchandise Manager Don Cameron.

Alien Registration Underway; Deadline To Report Jan. 30

Registration of all aliens as required by the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1952, will take place throughout the country from January 1-31, 1955.

The law requires each alien who is residing in the United States on January 1, 1955, to report his or her current address to the Commissioner of Immigration and Naturalization within 30 days following January 1, 1955. Any alien who is temporarily absent from the United States during the reporting period shall report his address within 10 days after his or her return to the United States.

Here in Daly City, as elsewhere throughout the country, address reporting cards will be available through the facilities of the post office department, Postmaster Vince Murphy announced.

The address reporting cards, rectangular punched cards, may be obtained at main post office on Bepler street, or at the Colma or Westlake stations.

The cards must be filled out and returned during the January registration period to the post office. In no case is the card to be mailed by alien.

Failure to comply with the reporting and registering requirements may result in deportation and in addition a penalty of imprisonment and fine before deportation, according to Bruce Barber, district director of immigation and naturalization service in San Francisco.

Barber emphasized the compilation of annual address reporting forms from all aliens is part of a decentralized process aimed at rendering speedier and more efficient service to registrants according to districts. This procedure, Barber said, will serve to expedite benefits to aliens, such as issuance of re-entry permits, petitions for naturalization certificates and cases involving marriage with American citizens.

LAW IN ACTION

SAFETY AT THE WHEEL

School buses carry thousands of children. What can you do to prevent their deaths or injuries in traffic accidents? You can obey strictly simple rules set up by law to protect our children.

The law calls for a driver to stop when he overtakes a school bus from the rear when it stops to take on or discharge children. Do you know you must stop also when you meet a stopped school bus?

The law says all school buses must have flashing red signal lights—front and back. Stop when you see these lights flashing. You must not move until the bus' lights stop flashing.

Only the school bus driver may operate the signal lights. He shows you when you can safely pass the bus. He knows if Jimmy has to cross the street to get home. And he will keep his lights flashing until Jimmy is safe on the other side.

More simple safety rules:

Use common sense when passing moving cars. Go past the car a safe distance before you cut back to the right. Don't speed up while a car tries to pass you.

You may pass a car on the right only in a few specific instances: For example, on wide city streets or clearly marked highways with two or more lanes in each direction. But even when you may pass on the right, check to see it is safe to do so. You must never pass on the right by driving off the pavement or on the shoulder of the road.

You may not cross the center line unless you can get back to the right side within 100 feet of any oncoming car. You should never cross a highway's center line when you cannot see if the left side is free of oncoming traffic. You must never cross a double line on a highway. Be especially careful about passing on hills or curves where your view may be restricted.

NOTE: The State Bar of California offers this column for your information so that you may know more about how to act under our laws.

COLLEGE CITY SCOUTS ATTEND COURT OF HONOR

Many Awards Given During Annual Meeting

Over one hundred parents, friends and Boy Scouts of College City Boy Scout Troop 340 attended the annual Christmas party and court of honor held recently at Commodore Sloat school, Darien Way and Junipero Serra boulevard, San Francisco.

A simulated Scout camp pitched around a beautiful silver tip Christmas tree decorated in red and white at the center of the stage provided the background as guests assembled. The camping equipment included two of the 20 new Troop 340 trail tents, patrol cooking kits, patrol chef's kits, lanterns, troop first aid kit, and other equipment purchased from funds earned by and dues paid by the members of Troop 340. The attractive scene was assembled by Patrol Leader Kenneth Jenkins and members of the Flaming Arrow Patrol.

Following the presentation of colors by Patrol Leader William Watson and the members of the Coyote Patrol, Scoutmaster D. C. Bryant, Assistant Scoutmaster Marshall Jenkins, and chairman of the troop committee, W. C. Watson, conducted a Court of Honor.

Tenderfoot Rites

Robert Watson, William Walton, Fred Munkner, John Zamzow, Robert Bryant, Craig Stimmel, Stephen Dobbs and Douglas Key were inducted into Troop 340 in an impressive tenderfoot investiture ceremony.

During the advancement court of honor ceremony, Second Class badges were presented to James Kragh, Dick Jones, Robert Bryant, William Gassaway, Larry Teshara, Peter Wronsky, Manuel Ornellas, Damon Wainscoat, James Wainscoat, Gregory Wainscoat and Sumner Parkington.

First Class badges were presented to William Watson, Gerald Brousseau, Keneth Jenkins, Barry Langberg, Richard Edgar and David Baumann.

Merit badges were presented to Scouts Robert Bryant (bee keeping), Peter Wronksy (stamp collecting and scholarship), Kenneth Jenkins (bugling) and Donald Bryant (hiking and personal fitness).

In a beautiful leaders' induction ceremony, patrol leaders bars were presented to William Watson (Coyote Patrol), Barry Langberg (Panther Patrol), Kenneth Jenkins (Flaming Arrow Patrol) and Gerald Brousseau (Apache Patrol); and an assistant patrol leaders bar was presented to Richard Edgar (Panther patrol) and David Bauman (Apache Patrol).

Twenty-five Scouts of Troop 340 are currently enrolled in and earning merit badges in the rowing and canoeing courses at Lake Merced on Saturday mornings. They are: Donald Bryant, William Watson, Gerald Brousseau, Thomas Rice, Spencer Merrell, Dick Jones, Manuel Ornelas, Robert Watson, Barry Langberg, Lynne Glassman, Richard Edgar, David Blair, Craig Stimmel, Kenneth Jenkins, Robert Anderson, Robert Bryant, Larry Teshara, Peter Wronksy, Larry Cosper, William Walton, William Gassaway, Robert O'Connell, David Bauman, John Zamzow and Fred Munkner.

Candlelight Ceremony

In an impressive candlelight ceremony, twelve year old Eagle Scout Donald Bryant, who is a charter member Senior Patrol Leader of Troop 340, was presented a trophy in recognition of the high honor he has earned. He completed the requirements for the Eagle badge in the shortest possible time, one year and four months. Everyone sang "Trail the Eagle" and three Scouts, James, Damon and Gregory Wainscoat, presented to Don a huge cake which they had baked and decorated with a beautiful replica of the Eagle Badge.

Following the song, "Green Grow the Rushes," the patrols played the following Scout Games: "Ice Rescue" — Flaming Arrow Patrol; "First Aid Relay"—Panther Patrol; "Compass Relay"—Apache Patrol; and "Dressing Race"—two Scouts from each ofthe four patrols.

After Santa's Helper arrived with gifts for everyone, refreshments were served by a committee of mothers including Mesdames W. C. Watson, Marshall Jenkins, C. A. Brousseau, Reinhold Anderson, J. E. McConkie, Franz W. Baumann and Ben V. Teshara. The merry meeting was closed with everyone singing "Jingle Bells."

A series of swimming parties during the holiday season was arranged for the Scouts of Troop 340 by Assistant Scoutmaster Ben V. Teshara.

Troop 340 meets at Commodore Sloat school each Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.

Men Of Note To Change Meet Place

The men in the Lake Merced area who sing together as "Men of Note" every Monday evening for for fun and relaxation met this week in a new location. They have outgrown their regular meeting place and are now looking for larger and generally more suitable quarters.

In the meantime the three-year-old group must take temporary quarters. Any man aged 18 to 80 who likes to sing, regardless of experience, is invited to call membership chairman Jack Dennis at PL. 5-5159 to learn the meeting place and visit a turnout.

Known as San Francisco's newest and most promising male chorus, the group numbers nearly 50 men and represents almost as many different occupations.

Under the experienced tutoring of its pretty, young director, Mrs. Mable Jacobs of 220 Cardenas avenue, Men of Note began this week preparing for spring public appearances.

COMMISSION STRENGTHENS LOG JAM REGULATIONS

SACRAMENTO — The hand of Department of Fish and Game in fighting log jams and other accumulation of debris on north coast salmon and steelhead streams has been strengthened by a regulation adopted by the Fish and Game Commission.

Specifically, the commission set up standards under which law enforcement officers of the Department can proceed more efficiently against violators of Section 482.5 of the Fish and Game Code.

The new regulation defines a log jam as:

(a) Any log jam or debris accumulation which has no well defined channel through which fish may pass at any time without delay;

(b) Any log jam or debris accumulation in any stream which reduces the dissolved oxygen content below five parts per million, or causes other conditions toxic to fish or aquatic life.

It particularly applies to the counties of Del Norte, Siskiyou, Trinity, Humboldt, Mendocino, Sonoma and Marin.

The regulation is expected to be an effective weapon against illegal logging operations on the state's best steelhead and salmon streams.

At the same time the Commission eliminated any time limit for post-season possession of waterfowl but left the possession limit unchanged at one daily limit.

In other actions the Commission:

1. Approved a management plan for the Lassen-Washoe deer herd, calling for 50-50 range utilization by deer and domestic livestock.

2. Adopted a policy on withdrawals of public lands for hunting and fishing use, emphasizing lands having as their highest and best use fish and game management purposes.

3. Delayed a request by International Geophysics Company for testing a new explosive for use in seismic explorations, pending agreement on location of the tests.

4. Approved permits for seismic explorations by the Union Oil Company and the Richfield Oil Company between Pt. Conception and the Mexican border, with work southeast of Pt. Dume limited from January 17 to February 28.

5. Granted a permit to take abalones commercially to Noel Williams of Cambria.

6. Revoked the permit of Dale E. Seeman, Long Beach, to take abalones commercially, for violation of the Fish and Game Code.

7. Approved a plan asking that the Bureau of Reclamation provide additional storage on its Washoe Project in California and Nevada on a non-reimbursable basis. Purpose of the additional storage is to provide a firm flow in Truckee river and to maintain Pyramid Lake spawning areas.

Newly appointed Commissioner Andy Kelly of Los Angeles was sworn in and participated in his first meeting.

Next meeting of the commission will be held January 7 in Los Angeles.

1954 GENERALLY GOOD YEAR FOR SPORTSMEN

California's growing army of hunters and fishermen will remember 1954 as a highly successful outdoor sports year in some respects, and a disappointment in others.

But, according to the Department of Fish and Game, the outcome generally will be on the credit side of the ledger.

First, there was an all-time record deer bag, both in the coastal and Sierra areas. The take of 75,602 surpassed the 1951 bag, the previous high, by 11,000.

No figures are available on most species of fresh water fishing, but 1953 was a record year, according to post card surveys made by the Department. And with an increased plant of catchables in 1954, it appears that the catch will at least equal last year's 22,350,000 trout and 22,000,000 other species caught.

Final figures are not in for ocean fishing, but the total catch will be at least equal to last year's and probably better. Warmwater species such as bass of various varieties, catfish, bluegills, crappie and sunfish, went into the creel in increased numbers.

Salmon fishing to date may have fallen off slightly due to poor spawning conditions four years ago, but steelhead fishing was hot in most areas in 1954.

Ocean salmon fishing was good during the year, although the Kings averaged out a trifle smaller than last year.

Anglers also had a crack at the giant sturgeon, for which an open season was declared for the first time in 35 years. San Pablo Bay was the hot spot for those monsters. Biggest taken during the year was a 277-pounder.

Big disappointment of the year was the pheasant season, which was fog-bound in the Sacramento Valley "pheasant bowl" for several days.

The kill on Department co-op areas was off 20 per cent from last year, on opening weekend, and conditions weren't any better elsewhere. However, the kill stayed at a higher level on the remaining eight days than the average year. Weather conditions were blamed for the poor showing, as previous estimates showed almost as many birds as the excellent 1953 season.

Waterfowl hunting also was plagued by bad weather conditions, although of a different kind. Bright, sunny weather prevailed for the entire first half of the season, and the bag was down slightly on the Department's public shooting areas and elsewhere.

Numbers of birds picked up as the second half opened with ideal waterfowl weather conditions, but flood conditions scattered them.

Doves were present in good numbers as the season opened, but scattered quickly. Shooting was better in southern California after the opening. Quail hunting appeared to be slightly better than average.

In southern California mountain areas band-tailed pigeon shooting was superior, especially in the Mt. Pinos area. Hunters also had an opportunity to hunt a brand new quarry, the chukar partridge. The chukar proved himself a formidable adversary and relatively few were taken in the first season.

Up in the northeastern part of the state sage hens appeared in numbers great enough to warrant a two day season for the first time in several years.

Planting of catchable-sized trout reached an all-time high with 5,485,000 of them being planted from July 1, 1953, to June 30, 1954, in California streams and lakes.

The year was good in other respects. Crop depredation by waterfowl was greatly reduced because of waterfown management areas and other measures taken by the Department in cooperation with farmers.

And finally, hunting fatalities were reduced from 15 last year to nine this year, and for the first time in several years, there were no fatal gun accidents during the crowded pheasant season.

MINK PRICES UP

SACRAMENTO — Mink, always guaranteed to raise the feminine heartbeat, is likely to bring cheer in other quarters as well this year.

Prices for top-quality mink pelts may bring trappers half again as much as they got last year, George Seymour, fur management supervisor for the Department of Fish and Game, reports. Last year's high was about $20.

Indications in major fur-buying centers are that other short-hair furs—muskrat, river otter, and beaver—may bring up to a third more than last year. In contrast to the sluggish market of past years, buyers are now saying they will take all the top furs of these four species they can get, Seymour states.

PACIFIC MACKEREL MAY DISAPPEAR

With the catch for the 1953-54 season down to 7,600,000 pounds, lowest mark in twenty-six years, the Pacific mackerel may well be going the way of the vanishing sardine, points out the National Automobile Club.

Not since 1928, when the Pacific mackerel first became popular as a cannery fish, has the seasonal catch fallen below the 10,000,000 pound mark. In the late 1930's, seasonal catches averaged over 100,000,000 pounds, and as late as 1949 the catch ran to 50,000,000 pounds.

Adding to the black outlook for the future of this fish is the fact that almost all those in the 1953-54 catch were less than a year in age. This means that the average fish in the catch weighed less than half a pound rather than the two full pounds it could have grown to, and that these fish have had no chance to reproduce. In this way the seed stock of the Pacific mackerel is rapidly being destroyed.

San Francisco adopted an official seal on November 4, 1852.

The word clove comes from the French "clou," meaning nail.

POLIO AFTERMATH

VICTIMS NEEDING AID AT START OF EACH YEAR

JOIN THE MARCH OF DIMES JAN. 3 TO 31

Each year sees an increased number of polio patients from previous epidemics who can be helped by long-term care paid for by the March of Dimes. As the proportion of deaths decreases, the cost of mending lives for the thousands who survive steadily increases.

Polio Hit Hardest In Small Counties

In recent years citizens of small counties have been stricken by polio more often than their big-county cousins, according to data released by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Statistics just compiled for the five-year period 1948-52 show the average annual polio attack rate in counties with a population of under 50,000 to be 27.4 cases per 100,000 people, while the average annual rate in counties of 50,000 or larger was 24.0 cases per 100,000 population.

Final incidence figures for 1953 show the average annual attack rate for the entire United States was 22.3 cases per 100,000 population. They also show unusually high attack rates in many small counties. Here are examples of high incidence counties in the 3,500 to 38,000 population range. (Figure following the county is the number of times its attack rate exceeded the national average):

Golden Valley, N. D., 13; Washington, Va., 8; Polk, Wis., 8; Avery, N. C., 8; Pope, Minn., 7; Schuyler, N. Y., 7; Del Norte, Calif., 5; and Richland, Va., 4.

No one knows just why this pattern exists, the National Foundation reports. Scientists are analyzing data on case rates among different population groups, but have not come up with any answers as yet. Among "guesstimates" advanced is that improvements in sanitation among rural communities may have reduced "silent" infections in infancy, which are believed to give natural long-term immunity.

Whatever the cause, more and more small communities are seeing at first hand how their March of Dimes contributions aid polio patients. This may be one reason why such areas lead the honor roll in per capita giving to the March of Dimes.

Some of the records set in 1954 by counties with a population under 15,000 were Alpine, Calif., where residents gave an average of $4.16 per person; Pulaski, Mo., where citizens averaged $3.16 each; Mineral, Nev., with $2.32 per capita, and Jeff Davis, Tex., with $2.22 per person.

News of Your Local Businesses and Business Men

By Jane Keith

One of 1954's biggest changes was the Daly City Library's partial switchover from olive drab and industrial shelving (never meant for use with books—to coral colored stacks that are convenient, colorful and CORRECT! And here's a wish that 1955 will see the switchover made complete—with low tables and chairs for the children's room—more stacks and most of all MORE SUPPORT from you, the readers! Make it your concern in 1955! Your comments and criticism are its yardstick of progress. Give them in full measure?

New management of the FAT BOY BARBECUE, located at 7217 Mission street, must be responsible for that practically permanent line up of customer cars out front . . . (and maybe menus like FAT BOY ranch style ham and eggs for just 90c)

Did you know?
THE RUG MEN, located at 2750 Junipero Serra boulevard, are your HOOVER VACUUM representatives in this area. . . . Call on them for repairs or for a new Hoover—the vacuum recommended by rug manufacturers as being the "best" for safe and complete rug cleaning!

YVONNE'S CASUAL SPORTSWEAR, located at 6207 Mission street, will be moving to new quarters on San Mateo's 25th avenue just as soon as she can get her stock in order . . . and give a "CLEARANCE SALE" goodbye to the many friends she has made during her Daly City stay. (We will miss Mrs. Poulsen—and hope that someone interested in taking over her business and good will here will have a talk with her in the very near future! She has built up a good trade and is leaving only because of family reasons.) . . . Sale, by the way, is in progress now!

HILLTOP MARKET'S two new cash registers, according to George Glass, "Do everything but sing God Bless America"—and after seeing them work—you can certainly believe it! The machine first records the amount you give the cashier—it then subtracts (after itemization of groceries bought) from that the amount you owe and also prints the amount of change you should receive!

Our first thought was, "But what about the human element?" but George says that any mistake made will jam the machine and keep jamming it until the error is rectified—so when they say, "No mistakes at HILLTOP!" it's the truth. So far there are only four of these registers in the Bay Area and when you find they cost $1785.00 EACH . . . you can guess why.

And speaking of money—here's hoping you have enough left from the jolly Christmas season to be able to take advantage of this month's SALES. . . . Almost every store in town (and I mean OUR town) will be offering really wonderful bargains and if your cash is not quite "ready" enough for the full purchase prices remember the lay away plan!

And that LESLIE'S DRESS SHOP Sale you have been waiting for has arrived! Bill Rubino, whose sale racks look better than most store's regular merchandise, is doing the usual (for him) and really CLEARING the way for new spring styles. . . . Be sure to visit LESLIE'S!

KAYE'S SMART SHOP, 66 School street, will be moving soon to 46 San Pedro Road, the former location of George Lagomarsino & Co. Right now she is holding a big Moving Sale with plenty of wonderful bargains. Wool, Orlon, and Taffeta dresses which sold regularly for $14.95 are on sale at $10.00 each. Skirts, children's and baby clothes, sweaters, blouses, lingerie, hosiery, everything is going at greatly reduced prices.

Another whopping sale is being held at the OUTDOOR STORE; 2141 Junipero Serra boulevard. Hank Zukerman has boys' jeans, boys' shirts, pants, men's work clothes, shoes and boots, and many, many other items marked to cost and below. If you want some real good prices look for his ad elsewhere in this paper.

BROADMOOR YOUTH SPENDS FURLOUGH WITH PARENTS HERE

Pvt. Robert Lee Heyer, USMC, returned to 29 Palms, Calif., last week after spending five days here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heyer, 851 87th street, Broadmoor.

Pvt. Heyer, right hand cannonier at the 29 Palms base, had the second highest IQ among recruits in his group. At time of induction he lacked one credit for graduation from Jefferson Union High school, but in the meantime has gained the scholastic credit through an extension course. Trainee ranking first in front of Pvt. Heyer in the IQ results was a college student, according to his mother.

Pvt. Heyer plans to attend college after completing his hitch with the Marines.

The honey bee was introduced into the United States from Europe.

Read Mark 5:25-34.

Thou scest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? (Mark 5:31.)

"Who touched me?" was Christ's question in the midst of the throng. How magnetic is the word touch!

During World War II, a busy housewife served as nurse's aide in one of the hospitals. At times she felt inadequate to the demands of the nurses. Yet one morning as she prayerfully bent to the task of massaging a patient, a smile rewarded her.

"You are a Christian," said the patient. "I know you are by the touch of your hands. I've been here many months; there is a difference in hands. Some are instruments of dutiful efficiency, others seems to radiate an indefinable warmth."

How weak we feel at times as we face the demands and pressures of life! Filled with His spirit, however, God can turn a touch, a look, a tone of a voice to reveal His love. Thereby He makes our service to our fellow men a sacrament rather than a dutv.

PRAYER

Dear heavenly Father, help us to think of ourselves as instruments for expressing Thy love. Attune and make sensitive our whole beings, that through us Thou mayest grant to others the love that Jesus would give. In His spirit we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

PORTAL ARTS CENTER HAS GUEST SPEAKER

Beatrice Manley, stage and radio actress, will be the first guest speaker at the Portal Arts Center, 537 Taraval street, according to Marjorie Silver, publicity.

Miss Manley's subject is "The Actor and the Audience." The lecture will be given Sunday, January 16, at 8 p.m. in the center and is open to the public.

The speaker's Broadway credits include "Eve of St. Mark," "The Cherry Orchard," and "Eastward In Eden." She has been heard on radio in "The Aldrich Family" series. Recently, Miss Manley has taken part in local productions of the Actor's Workshop.

Starting January 15 Leonard Breger, director and instructor at the center, is exhibiting his drawings at the California Palace of the Legion of Honor. The exhibit is entitled "People In Black and White."

Children's drawing will be offered at the center commencing Friday, January 14, from 4 to 5. The classes are for children 5 to 12 years of age, fees are $7.20 for 12 lessons.

Classes in beginning painting, drawing, dancing and puppetry for adults are open for registration any week night 8 to 10.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS DC SCHOOL CHILDREN

The children of General Pershing school celebrated the Yule season with candy, ice cream, cookies and carols. Fathers and mothers looked on as their sons and daughters whispered in Santa's ear and received stockings of candy.

A capacity crowd listened to the Christmas carols and songs sung by each grade. Mrs. Mitchell's first graders won the prize for having the most parents in attendance. After the program the children returned to their rooms to enjoy ice cream and cookies. Mrs. Robert Keith, PTA president, invites all interested parents to attend the monthly meetings.

CHURCH NEWS ROUNDUP

The Reverend Wilder Immel of San Mateo will speak at the Men's Fellowship dinner on Friday at 7 p.m.

Dr. Howard P. McConnell, minister of the 101 Vista Grande avenue Christian church, will speak on "He Came To Nazareth" at the 10:55 a.m. service on Sunday. This begins the Sunday morning sermon series preceding Easter celebrations.

Sunday school, with classes for all ages and a nursery starts at 9:30 a.m. under the supervision of Oliver deGraff.

At a recent dinner meeting, church leaders made plans for the Easter season. The outline includes a dinner to be held each Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. followed by devotional services and auxiliary meetings. The first of these dinners is scheduled for next week (Jan. 12). The community is invited.

Africa Missionaries At Assembly Church

The Rev. and Mrs. R. J. Renfroe, missionaries to Africa, will be on hand all day for services Sunday at the First Assembly of God church, Evergreen and Hanover streets.

They will appear first at the 11 a.m. worship service and that evening at 7:30 p.m. garbed in native costume.

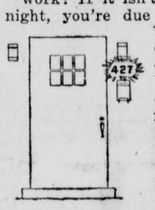
Is House Number Legible?

IS YOUR house number doing its work? If it isn't visible, day or night, you're due for a change!



You can make a distinctive set of house numbers easily. The only materials needed are some Masonite Tempered Presdwood and a keyhole saw, which cuts curves.

First, design the letters so they are of the correct size in proportion to the house and entrance—but large enough to be visible from the street. Transfer the design to the tempered hardboard, ⅛" thick, and start cutting.

Sand down any rough edges. The numerals may be mounted directly on the siding, using waterproof glue or finishing nails, or placed on a piece of shaped hardwood.

Paint the Tempered Presdwood on both sides, for weatherproofing reasons, before putting the numbers up. For a reflective surface, obtain from your hardware dealer tiny glass beads or a special tape.

Some families, particularly in outlying areas, like to identify their homes with nameplates. These may be similarly made and mounted on a board, which is fastened to a tree out in front or hung from a post. An even easier method, suitable for the summer cottage, is painting the name directly on a piece of primed Tempered Presdwood, either free-hand or with stencils.

Still another method is to mount decalcomanias on hardboard, using individual letters or numerals. Two or three coats of waterproof varnish or shellac will safeguard the nameplate and number for years.

TWO DC BATTLERS ON THURSDAY FIGHT CARD AT LOCAL RING

Two Daly City leather-pushers will be included on the seven-bout offering next Thursday night at the Daly City community center when the OLPH Men's club present their third monthly amateur boxing program.

Topping the card will be the main event pitting Sid Knight and Bob MacIver, a pair of undefeated heavyweights. Knight, at 185 pounds, has won his last eight forays by knockouts, while MacIver, 189 pounds, is Stanford University intercollegiate champ. The Molina-Conley 132-pound scrap originally scheduled for the main event was cancelled.

In the semi-final, Aimodio Canteino, 160-pound European title holder and undefeated in 50 Army battles, will face Ray King, also 160, who has registered knockout victories in his last four fights.

Harry Benavente of Daly City, 165-pounder who won his fight here last month by a knockout, will meet Ricci Brooks, 16, of Booker T. Washington, also a winner in his last outing.

In another bout featuring a Daly City combatant, Chuck MacDougall, 150-pound localite, will square off with Julius Brown, USAF novice who also weighs 150.

Chencho Chavez, 140-pound brother of lightweight contender Eddie Chavez, will meet John Pawlick, USAF novice.

Other bouts include: Terry Smith, 148, USAF, a winner in his last three fights, vs. undefeated Hank Casey, 147, of Booker T. Washington: George Angelus, 120, Mountain View, 1953 Golden Gloves champ, vs. Mick Lopez, 120, USAF, Army title holder in the senior division.

The fights begin at 8:15 p.m. Persons seeking reservations may contact Dick Liberty, JU. 8-3215.

Tony Bosnich, a Daly City resident and former professional heavyweight boxer, will referee Thursday night's matches.

Star Duster Group Holds Square Dance

The Star-Dusters' club, sponsored by American Legion Post No. 410, announce that a square dance will be held Monday night at 8:30 p.m. at 474 San Diego avenue, beginning at 8:30 p.m.

Caller for beginners will be Arnie Nielsen. A 50 cents donation covers cost of the two-hour dance period and all persons 18 years of ago or older are invited.

Persons seeking additional information may phone PL. 6-0358 or JU. 6-2253.

In the first heavy weight championship under Marquis of Queensberry rules, Corbett defeated John L. Sullivan on Sept. 7, 1892.

SF FIREMEN, ALTA ROOFERS PACE CAGE PLAY

SF fire department continued unbeaten in the Adult Basketball league Thursday night at the community center as they trod over Sarto A.C., 60-40, behind the 25-point output of Jack Welsh.

The game was close in the first quarter until Welsh proceeded to hit five straight field goals, giving the firemen a healthy working margin. John Flaherty controlled both backboards for the SF'ans. Jack Dederman paced Sartomen with 14 points.

In Tuesday's action Alta Roofers maintained their unbeaten record as they routed Gigli Plumbing, 81-51. Ex-collegions Bob Lincoln and Cappy Lavin hit 33 and 18 points, respectively, to lead the slaughter. Alta's total score set a new record high for the two-year-old community center.

Alta, winner of the last two year's league play, appears headed for another championship, with only SF Firemen offering any sort of competition. These two top clubs will be pitted against each other next week.

In Tuesday's other contest, the fast-improving Mario's Huddle won their second game by upsetting the pre-league favorite, Ralph's Cleaners, 56-51, in an overtime contest.

The lead changed hands 11 times during the contest. Ralph's Jack Ditty had the opportunity to decide the game with 25 seconds remaining and two free throws, but missed both of them.

Don De Meyer led Mario's scoring with 12. Joe Dillon of Ralph's was high for the evening with 18.

Sarto Resumes Play Sunday At Marchbanks

Sarto A.C. resumes action after the holidays Sunday when they meet New Pisa Restaurant at Marchbanks park, beginning at 2 p.m.

In another Marchbanks contest Sunday, Ellingson Sport Shop of San Bruno meets Daly City's Cheroli's Nursery, beginning at 11:30 p.m.

Slight Drop Seen In Marriage Applications

Cage League Opener Tonight for Jeff Five

Riding on an unimpressive practice season record of two wins, nine losses, Jefferson High school's varsity basketball team enters league play tonight (Friday) at 7 p.m. against a weak Half Moon Bay five in a contest on the Daly City court.

Despite their poor pre-season showing, the Indians are tabbed likely victors over a Half Moon Bay club that is picked to finish at the bottom of the Peninsula Athletic league.

30s Favorites

The Jefferson 30s, coached by Tony Giammona, will enter tonight's action with a 3-6 practice game mark, but will still be slight favorites over the Coastside club.

Tentative starting five includes Rich Gonzales and Hank Edwards at forwards, Larry Kennedy at center, and Bill Curtis and Larry Pottenger at guards.

The local cagers split a pair of practice games Tuesday at Livermore, as the varsity was edged, 56-52, while the Indian lightweights were walking over their opposition, 32-18.

Figone led the Jeff varsity attack with 18 points, while Anguillo was runner-up with 10. Remainder of the scoring was well-distributed, as the local club displayed one of their best offensive games.

Leads At Half

Jeff trailed 12-8 at the quarter, took the lead, 28-27 at halftime, increased it to 40-36 at the close of the third quarter and then fell behind in the last canto after a 20-point outburst accounted for solely by two Livermore players, Larry Mustain and Mike Ferrario. Mustain hit a total of 27 for the game.

The local lightweights made a rout of their game in the final quarter. Holding a 22-17 edge, the Indians unleashed a 10-point attack in the last session, holding Livermore to one tally.

Thursday against a pair of Mission clubs the local casabamen both suffered losses.

Mission's varsity led the Jeffs throughout the game to win, 52-42.

Anguillo Hits 16

Anguillo led the Daly City club with 16, followed by Figone's 13.

All of Anguillo's points came in the second half. In the first two periods the Jeff forward was occupied with guarding Mission's high scoring Leroy Thomas, holding him to 12 markers.

The local 30s played an even game down to the wire with the Mission lights, losing out finally, 22-20.

The Indians held a 11-9 half-time lead, were tied, 13 all at the close of the third canto, and dropped behind in the last quarter as Mission made good on foul shots. The local cagers tangle with Balboa Tuesday in a home practice game.

San Mateo Grads Are Second In State Exams

All College of San Mateo graduates in Vocational Nursing passed the State Board Examinations according to word received this week from the Board of Vocational Nurse Examiners in Sacramento by Miss Evelyn Crowley, teacher of vocational nursing at CSM. The average score of applicants from the College was second highest in the state. Seventeen graduates of CSM took the licensing examination with a total of 926 persons from all parts of the state of California.

College of San Mateo nurses licensed were Marie Murray of South San Francisco, Katharine Stewart of Belmont, Giovanna B. Sant, Hope Maher, Betty Steding Brady of Burlingame, Doris Shute, Teresa Crommelin of Menlo Park, Dolores Spenser Cardott of Millbrae, Lois Beeby of San Carlos, Agnes Berg, Jo Johnson, Jean Kristjanson, Ethel LaDow, Doris Livingston, Elsie McCreanor, Kathryn Sanvidotto and Anna Wasserman of San Mateo.

The second class in vocational nursing is now in session at CSM. These students will be eligible for the State Board of Examinations upon successful completion of 1700 hours of lecture, demonstration, and practice. A third class will be offered in the fall of 1955. Persons interested in enrolling then may call Miss Crowley for specific information.

DONKEY BASKETBALL RETURNS TO JEFF HIGH NEXT WEDNESDAY

Donkey basketball returns to the Jefferson Union High school gymnasium Wednesday evening, January 12.

The Daly City-Colma Lions club will oppose the high school faculty team. A hilariuos evening is assured as five Lions mounted on donkeys attempt to outscore five teachers mounted on equally stubborn animals.

Those who have witnessed these games in the past will be on hand again to root for their favorites (the donkeys?).

Walt Rector is captain of the Lions team and expects to start such stars as Postmaster Vince Murphy, ex-mayor Mel Battye, "Money-Bags" Panella, Elio Fontana, John Radhuber, "Doc" Richards, Roy Arneson, and Walt Lehigh. It is understood that Rector has a strong reserve list which he is not announcing.

"Mike" Orlich will handle the faculty squad. He has a strong starting line-up, using coaches Joe McGrath, Lou Martin, Van Alstyne, Ribera, Williamson, and Tony Giammona. In reserve Orlich hopes to use his heavy-weights vice principal John Mongan, Paul Rosendahl, Dean of Boys Glenn E. South, Durant W. Moseley and Howard Miguel.

The game is to start at 8:30 and will be proceeded by a preliminary game to be announced later.

Proceeds of the evening will go to the high school athletic equipment fund.

WRESTLING LICENSE SOUGHT HERE BY HOLY ANGELS CLUB

Application for a club license to conduct professional wrestling shows at the Daly City community center was filed yesterday (Thursday) with the state athletic commission.

Kevin Epidendio, the promoter, filed the application, under the name of the Holy Angels Athletic club.

Frank Malcewicz, publicity manager and advisor for the Holy Angels group, said he hoped to hold the first matches February 15. He indicated that the wrestlers signed for the programs would be the "outstanding performers from the West Coast."

The advisor said the Holy Angels Athletic club hopes to fill the community center to its 1500 capacity for the events. "We'd like to put even more in, if they can find room to stand," he said.

The matches wouldn't be held monthly, Malcewicz said, but would probably be scheduled every three or four months.

"It all depends on how we do on our first show," he added.

Proceeds of the matches will go to the Holy Name society of the Holy Angels church in Colma, according to Malcewicz.

Malcewicz said he thought the athletic commission would approve the license. The Holy Angels club already has permission to use the community center, he revealed.

The club plans to charge $1.15 for general admission, $1.65 for ringside seats.

Vince & Fred Nab Bowling Honors In All Departments

Vince & Fred walked off the alleys with all of the laurels at Brentwood Tuesday night in Daly City-Colma Bowling league action.

In addition to winding up in a tie for first place on the opening night of the second round, the liquor men scored high team series, 2675, high team gone, 937, and their top kegsman, Babe De Luca, claimed high individual series and game.

De Luca rolled games of 237, 222, and 177 for a 636 series, one of the season's highest. His 237 game was high for the evening.

Sharing a four-way first-place tie with Vince & Fred are Daly City Eagles, Ralph's Cleaners and Wm. Lagomarsino & Co. each registering triple victories over Vagabonds, Apple Tree Rest, Paul's Flowers and Marketeers, respectively.
